Connie Lim

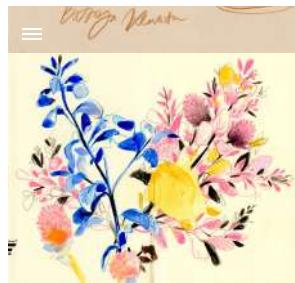

Connie Lim is an illustrator from Los Angeles, California now living in London. She is an avid observational drawer and is interested in capturing the moment through her constant life-drawing practice. Through mixed media, she plays with various combinations and techniques to create playful but striking images. You can find her sketching almost everywhere from backstage at fashion shows to in-store live drawing portraits and products.

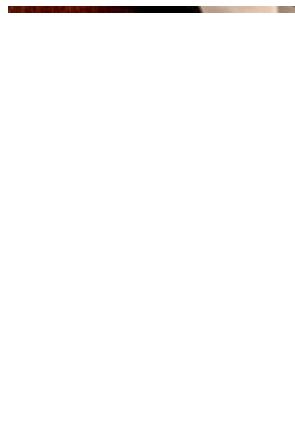

She has shown in galleries such as Cho in London, Acid Gallery in France, Fashion Illustration Gallery AE and ShowStudio. Her work has been featured in publications including Martin Dawber's Great Big Book of Fashion Illustration, Beautiful by Godalming and the latest by Taschen, The Illustrator - 100 Best From Around the World
